Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Central Intelligence Agency Act Amendments of 1955".

Sec. 2. Section 5 (a) of the Act entitled the "Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949", approved June 20, 1949, (63 Stat. 209; 50 U.S.C. 403 e.), as amended, is amended by striking out "permanent-duty" and "its territories, and possessions," in the first sentence thereof.

Sec. 3. Section 5 (a) (1) of such Act is amended by inserting at the end thereof a new subsection "G" which shall read as follows:

"(G) pay the travel expenses incurred by an officer or employee of the Agency who is assigned to a post outside the continental United States, in transporting dependents to and from United States ports of entry designated by the Agency, to obtain an American secondary or college education, not to exceed one trip each way for each dependent for the purpose of obtaining each type of education.

Sec. 4. Section 5 (a) (3) (A) of such Act is amended to read as follows:

"(3) Order to the United States or its Territories and possessions on leave of absence as provided by law, every officer and employee of the Agency who was a resident of the United States or its territories and possessions at time of employment, upon completion of two years' continuous service abroad, or as soon as possible thereafter.

Sec. 5. Section 5 (a) (3) of such Act is amended by inserting at the end thereof a new subsection (D) which shall read as follows:

"(D) The provisions of Section 203 (f) of the Act entitled the "Annual and Sick Leave Act of 1951", approved October 30, 1951, (65 Stat. 679; 5 U.S.C. 2061), and as may hereafter be amended, shall be applicable to officers and employees of the Central Intelligence Agency."

Sec. 6 Section 5 (a) (5) (D) of such Act is amended by inserting "and their dependents" after the word "Agency" and again at the end of the section immediately before the period.

Sec. 7 Section 5 (b) of such Act is amended by striking out all of the words of the section after the word "Agency" and inserting the following:

"(1) allowances, wherever Government owned or rented quarters are not available, for living quarters, heat, light, fuel, gas, and electricity, including allowances for the cost of lodging at temporary quarters, incurred by an officer or employee of the Agency and the members of his family upon first arrival at a new post, for a period not in excess of three months after such first arrival or until the occupation of residence quarters, whichever period shall be shorter, up to but not in excess of the aggregate amount of the per diem that would be allowable to such officer or employee for himself and the members of his family for such period if they were in travel status;

(2) cost-of-living allowances, whenever the Director shall determine--

(A) that the cost of living at a post abroad is proportionately so high that an allowance is necessary to enable an officer or employee of the Agency at such post to carry on his work efficiently;

(B) that extraordinary and necessary expenses, not otherwise compensated for, are incurred by an officer or employee of the Agency incident to the establishment of his residence at any post of assignment abroad or at a post of assignment in the continental United States between assignments to posts abroad;

(C) that an allowance is necessary to assist an officer or employee of the Agency who is compelled by reason of dangerous, notably unhealthful, or excessively adverse living conditions at his post abroad or for the convenience of the Government to meet the additional expense of maintaining his wife and minor children elsewhere than in the country of his assignment;

(D) that extraordinary and necessary expenses, not otherwise compensated for, must be incurred by an officer or employee of the Agency, by reason of his service abroad,
